

THE BIO OF PASTOR LENYAR ROBINSON

Pastor Lenyar Robinson serves alongside her husband, Dr. Kenneth Robinson Jr., at DreamLife Worship Center in Randallstown, MD and Prosper, TX, where she actively contributes to the various areas of ministry. She obtained her initial ministerial licensing and ordination in 1992 through the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World. Pastor Robinson is a graduate of Aeon Bible College and has furthered her education at Dallas Baptist University and Oral Roberts University.

In addition to her ministerial work, she is a licensed cosmetologist with over 30 years of experience and a serial entrepreneur, currently owning and operating Sheba Boutique in Frisco, TX. Pastor Robinson is the host of Grace and Glory, a women's empowerment news segment on WMAR ABC Baltimore. She is also the founder and host of her annual women's conference held in Baltimore, Flawsome. This gathering is for women of every age and boldly represents women doing extraordinary things despite their flaws.

Above all, she is deeply committed to the call of God on her life. Pastor Robinson is an anointed worship leader, a prolific and prophetic speaker, an author, a spiritual mother, a mentor, and a friend to many. She is blessed with two beautiful children, Chloe Noel and Gabrielle Joi.
